3 the hearings by legal counsel of the member's choice and at the member's own expense;

4 (3) Afford the member full opportunity to present the member's position, to present
5 witnesses in support of the member's position, and extend the opportunity to confront
6 and to question witnesses called by the committee;

7 (4) Advise the member immediately of the date and time of each meeting, in cases
8 where the committee adjourns prior to completing its work and submitting its report to 9 the House of Representatives.

10 If the House of Representatives is called into special session for the express purpose of 11 investigating the conduct of a Representative, the member is deemed to have received
12 constructive notice within the provisions of this rule.

13 H6-5. Subpoena power; punishment for contempt. The select committee is hereby 14 specifically and expressly granted the power and authority, with the written approval of the 15 chair of the committee, to hold hearings, subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, require the 16 production of books and records, and to do all other things necessary to accomplish the 17 purpose of its hearings and deliberations.

18 If a subpoena is not honored, the select committee also has the power to punish for contempt
19 and to provide for the prosecution of any person for refusal to testify, false swearing, or 20 perjury before the select committee in accordance with law.

21 H6-6. Receipt of resignation; authority of the chair. If, prior to resolution of the 22 investigation, a written resignation signed by the representative who is the subject of the 23 investigation has been received by the chair, the chair may terminate the meetings of the 24 select committee.

25 H6-7. Select committee report. Any action to expel, censure, discipline, or exonerate a
26 representative shall be proposed in a select committee report of the Select Committee on 27 Discipline and Expulsion. If the select committee report calls for expulsion, censure, or 28 discipline, the report shall set forth the causes and grounds for which expulsion, censure, or 29 discipline is being recommended by the House of Representatives, and it shall state the 30 particular form of action recommended to the House of Representatives. If the select 31 committee report calls for exoneration, the report shall set forth the reasons why exoneration
32 is appropriate.

33 H6-8. Procedure in the House of Representatives. Adoption of a select committee report 34 for the expulsion of a representative requires the favorable vote of a two-thirds majority of 35 the elected members. Adoption of a select committee report for the censure or discipline of a 36 representative requires the favorable vote of a three-fifths majority of the elected members.
37 Adoption of a select committee report for the exoneration of a representative requires the 38 favorable vote of a majority of the elected members.

CHAPTER 7. CONSENT CALENDAR

H7-1. Consent calendar. Notwithstanding Joint Rule 13-1, a bill requiring a two-thirds vote of the members-elect may not be voted on the House consent calendar. If such a bill is placed on the House consent calendar, the presiding officer shall order it removed and placed on the next legislative day's regular bill calendar.

H7-2. Approval of consent calendar is final disposition. Notwithstanding Joint Rule 13-4, after allowing a reasonable time for questions from the floor on the bills and resolutions on the consent calendar and after permitting the proponents to answer the questions, the Speaker of the House shall call for a vote on the consent calendar. Approval of the consent calendar by a majority of the members-elect of the House is considered final disposition of all the bills and resolutions on the consent calendar.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

Art. III, Sec. 19. Signing of bills and resolutions.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER OF EACH HOUSE SHALL, IN THE PRESENCE OF THE HOUSE OVER WHICH HE PRESIDES, SIGN ALL BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY THE LEGISLATURE, AFTER THEIR TITLES HAVE BEEN PUBLICLY READ IMMEDIATELY BEFORE SIGNING, AND THE FACT OF SIGNING SHALL BE ENTERED UPON THE JOURNAL.

STATUTORY PROVISIONS

§ 2-4-9. Disturbance or disorderly conduct in Legislature as misdemeanor.

Every person who intentionally disturbs the Legislature of this state, or either of the branches composing it, while in session, or who commits any disorderly conduct in the immediate view and presence of either branch of the Legislature tending to interrupt its proceedings or impair the respect due to its authority, is guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor.

§ 2-4-14. Contempt of Legislature--Punishment.

The Senate or the House of Representatives may punish, as a contempt, by imprisonment, a breach of its privileges or the privileges of its members; but only for one or more of the following offenses:

(1) Knowingly arresting a member or officer of the Senate or the House of Representatives, or procuring such member or officer to be arrested in violation of his privilege from arrest;

(2) Disorderly conduct in the immediate view of the Senate or the House of Representatives, and directly tending to interrupt its proceedings;

(3) Refusing to be examined as a witness either before the Senate or the House of Representatives, or a committee thereof, or before any person authorized to take testimony in legislative proceedings;

(4) Giving or offering a bribe to a member, or attempting, by menace or other corrupt means or device, directly or indirectly, to control or influence a member in giving his vote, or to prevent his giving the same;

but the term of imprisonment which the Senate or House of Representatives may impose for any contempt specified in this section shall not extend beyond the session of the Legislature.

1 § 2-7-22. Forfeiture of office on conviction of legislator--Disqualification from public
2 office.

3 The conviction of a member of the Legislature of any crime defined in § 22-12A-17 or § 22-
4 12A-18 involves as a consequence, in addition to the punishment prescribed therein, a
5 forfeiture of his office and disqualifies him from ever thereafter holding any public office
6 under this state.

7 RULES

8 1-1. Presiding officers. The presiding officer of the Senate is the president and the 9 presiding officer of the House of Representatives is the speaker. The presiding officer of 10 each house shall take the chair on every legislative day at the hour to which that house
11 adjourned at the last sitting.

12 1-2. Order of business. Each house shall begin each session as follows: call to order,
13 prayer by the chaplain, pledge of allegiance, roll call, and determination of a quorum, then
14 proceed with the daily order of business. A majority of the members present may demand
15 that the journal for the preceding day be read.

16 1-3. Questions of order. The presiding officer of each house shall decide all questions of 17 order, subject to a motion of appeal, by a majority of the members present. No member may 18 speak more than once on an appeal without the consent of a majority of the members
19 present.

20 1-4. Recognition of members for remarks. When a member desires to speak, that member
21 shall respectfully address the presiding officer. When the presiding officer recognizes the 22 member, that member is entitled to the floor. The member first to address the presiding
23 officer shall speak first. If two or more members address the presiding officer at the same 24 time, the presiding officer shall name the member who is to speak first.

25 1-5. Time allowed for a member to speak. Each member may speak on the pending
26 subject before any member speaks twice. No member may speak more than twice nor longer
27 than ten minutes on the same subject without the consent of a majority of the members
28 present. However, a member may speak an additional twenty minutes if the time is yielded
29 by individual members of the body. In computing the time allowed for argument, the time
30 consumed in asking questions is considered. If a member consents to the question, the time
31 consumed by the answer is taken out of the time allowed to the person asking the question.

32 1-6. Questions on the floor. If a member wishes to ask a question of another member, that 33 member shall courteously do so through the presiding officer and with the consent of the 34 member to whom the question is addressed. Any question addressed to a member shall 35 relate to a question before the body and shall be concisely asked for the sole purpose of 36 obtaining information. No question may reflect upon the character or conduct of any 37 official, contain argument or debate, or inquire about the course a member proposes to 38 follow.

1-7. Call to order. If a member is called to order, that member shall remain silent until the presiding officer determines whether the member is in order. The decision of the presiding officer is subject to a motion of appeal.

1-8. Signing of documents by presiding officer. The presiding officer of each house shall sign all concurrent resolutions and commemorations and all writs, warrants, and subpoenas issued by the house over which the officer presides.

1-9. Those permitted to speak to the body. No person other than a member of a house may speak upon any subject before the house unless a member makes a motion to allow another person to speak and the members present unanimously consent. However, the speaker of the House and the president pro tempore of the Senate may allow any person other than a member of the body to speak subject to advance notice to the majority and minority leaders. A motion objecting to the decision of the presiding officer shall require a majority vote of the members- elect.

1-10. Dissent against an act or resolution. Any two members of a house may dissent or protest in respectful language against any act or resolution which they think injurious to the public or to any individual and have the reason for their dissent or protest entered upon the journal. However, if an objection is made that the language of the dissent or protest is not respectful, a majority of the house may refer the dissent or protest back to the dissenting or protesting members for emendation.

1-11. Repealed.

CHAPTER 1A. DECORUM

1A-1. Preservation of decorum. The presiding officer of each house shall preserve order and decorum and, in the case of disturbance or disorderly conduct, may order the galleries or lobbies to be cleared.

1A-2. Smoking prohibited. Smoking is prohibited in all areas of the Capitol.

1A-3. Alcoholic beverages prohibited. No alcoholic beverage, beer, wine, or other beverage containing alcohol may be stored or consumed in any area of the Capitol that is under the control of the Legislature.

1A-4. Sexual harassment prohibited. All members are responsible for ensuring that the workplace is free from sexual harassment. All members shall avoid any action or conduct which could be viewed as sexual harassment. A member shall report any sexual harassment complaint to the presiding officer of the house to which the member belongs. If the situation is not resolved, the member shall forward the complaint to the Executive Board of the Legislative Research Council.

1A-5. Discrimination prohibited. The Legislature is an equal opportunity employer and provides equal access to facilities and services without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sex, disability, ancestry, or national origin.

1A-6. Person with a disability may request assistance. Individuals requesting assistance pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act must contact the Legislative Research Council at least forty-eight hours in advance of the needed assistance.

1A-7. Use of chambers for campaign photographs. Legislators and candidates for the Legislature may use the chambers for campaign photographs; however, no changes may be made to the arrangement of either chamber.

1A-8. Items distributed to the members' desks. Before any person may distribute an item to the members' desks on the floor of the Senate or the House of Representatives, that person must obtain the approval of the secretary of the Senate or the chief clerk of the House, subject to the review of the speaker of the House and the president pro tempore of the Senate, respectively. Any item distributed to the members' desks on the chamber floor must clearly bear the name of the item originator.

1A-9. Cellular telephones prohibited. Cellular telephones may not be used in either chamber or gallery while the Legislature is in session.

1A-10. Presiding Officer's power to maintain order. The presiding officer may have any member temporarily removed in order to preserve order and decorum.

1A-11. Repealed.

CHAPTER 1B. LEGISLATIVE CODE OF CONDUCT

1B-1. Maintenance of ethical standards. The people of South Dakota require that their legislators maintain the highest of moral and ethical standards as such standards are essential to assure the trust, respect and confidence of our citizens. Legislators have a solemn responsibility to avoid improper behavior and refrain from conduct that is unbecoming to the Legislature or that is inconsistent with the Legislature's ability to maintain the respect and trust of the people it serves. While it is not possible to write rules to cover every circumstance, each legislator must do everything in his or her power to deal honorably with the public and with his or her colleagues and must promote an atmosphere in which ethical behavior is readily recognized as a priority and is practiced continually, without fail.

1B-2. Compliance with specified requirements. Each legislator will comply with all Constitutional and statutory requirements regarding conflicts of interest. Legislators will timely file all required disclosure statements including Statements of Organization, Campaign Finance Reports and Statements of Financial Interest. Legislators must also avoid any conflict of interest which would interfere with their duties and responsibilities as legislators, interfere with the exercise of their best judgment in support of the State of South Dakota or create an improper personal benefit.

1B-3. Professional conduct and civility. The South Dakota Legislature will strengthen and sustain an atmosphere of professional conduct and civility among its members and with all staff and will not tolerate harassment or offensive behavior based on race, color, religion, national origin, gender, age, or disability. Legislators must refrain from any and all such harassment or offensive conduct. This prohibition against harassment also encompasses sexual harassment including unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, non-verbal, or physical conduct of a sexually harassing nature, when: (1) submission to the harassment is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment or other employment determinations, or (2) the harassment has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

1B-4. Action in event of violation. Failure to observe the highest standards of public conduct will subject a legislator to appropriate action, pursuant to the rules of the Chamber and Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure.

CHAPTER 2. MEETINGS, QUORUMS, AND ATTENDANCE

CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

Art. III, Sec. 7. Convening of annual sessions.

THE LEGISLATURE SHALL MEET AT THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT ON THE SECOND TUESDAY OF JANUARY AT 12 O'CLOCK M. AND AT NO OTHER TIME EXCEPT AS PROVIDED BY THIS CONSTITUTION.

Art. III, Sec. 14. Elections viva voce.

IN ALL ELECTIONS TO BE MADE BY THE LEGISLATURE THE MEMBERS THEREOF SHALL VOTE VIVA VOCE AND THEIR VOTES SHALL BE ENTERED IN THE JOURNAL.

Art. III, Sec. 15. Open legislative sessions - Exception.

THE SESSIONS OF EACH HOUSE AND OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE SHALL BE OPEN, UNLESS WHEN THE BUSINESS IS SUCH AS OUGHT TO BE KEPT SECRET.

Art. III, Sec. 16. Adjournment of legislative houses.

NEITHER HOUSE SHALL WITHOUT THE CONSENT OF THE OTHER ADJOURN FOR MORE THAN THREE DAYS, NOR TO ANY OTHER PLACE THAN THAT IN WHICH THE TWO HOUSES SHALL BE SITTING.

Art. III, Sec. 9, Par. 2. Quorum.

A MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS OF EACH HOUSE SHALL CONSTITUTE A QUORUM, BUT A SMALLER NUMBER MAY ADJOURN FROM DAY TO DAY, AND MAY COMPEL THE ATTENDANCE OF ABSENT MEMBERS IN SUCH A MANNER AND UNDER SUCH PENALTY AS EACH HOUSE MAY PROVIDE.

RULES

2-1. Those permitted on the floor during session. In addition to current legislators, only the following persons are entitled to the floor of the House of Representatives or Senate during sessions: justices of the Supreme Court or persons who are or have been Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or members of the Congress of the United States from South Dakota; former members of the South Dakota Legislature, except those currently serving in any elective state or local office other than Governor or Lieutenant Governor; current legislative employees; and news reporters. However, these persons may not be on the floor if acting in a manner to influence legislation. No other person may be admitted to the floor without consent of the presiding officer.

2-2. Call of the house. One-sixth of the members-elect of either house may compel the attendance of absent members by ordering a call of the house of which they are members, but a call of the house may not be made after voting commences.

2-3. Procedure after a call of the house. When a call of the house is ordered, the doors shall be closed and the absentees noted. No member may leave the room until permission is given by the presiding officer, the sergeant at arms' report is received and acted upon, or the house is adjourned. Until the sergeant at arms' report is received, proceedings under the call may not be suspended except by two-thirds of the members present.

2-4. Access to chamber and lobbies. Except as otherwise provided in Joint Rule 2-1, no person, except current legislators and legislative employees, may enter either chamber or space reserved for members of the Legislature adjacent to either chamber at any time during a session or for the period of three hours preceding a session except upon invitation of a member of the chamber. However, under no circumstances may a lobbyist enter either chamber or reserved space for a period of three hours preceding a session or one hour after adjournment of the chamber.

CHAPTER 3. LEGISLATIVE EMPLOYEES

RULES

3-1. Appointment of legislative employees. The president pro tempore of the Senate shall appoint all necessary employees for the Senate. The speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint all necessary employees of the House. All employee positions shall be described in a uniform compensation and classification manual which shall be annually reviewed by the Executive Board of the Legislative Research Council and approved by the Joint Select Committee on Compensation.

3-2. Duties of the secretary of the Senate and chief clerk of the House. The secretary of the Senate and chief clerk of the House of Representatives are responsible to the president pro tempore of the Senate or the speaker of the House, respectively. Their duties are:

- (1) To supervise the keeping of a daily journal, the engrossing and enrolling, and the handling of bills and resolutions;

(6) To preserve one true copy of each printed bill, joint resolution, and concurrent resolution of each legislative session; to attach the copy together with a signed certificate that it is a true and complete copy of each printed bill, joint resolution, and concurrent resolution of the legislative session; and to file such certified copies with the secretary of state within ten days after adjournment of the Legislature; and

(7) To perform all other acts appertaining to the office as may be required by the house or its presiding officer.

3-3. Office of Engrossing and Enrolling. The Legislative Research Council shall perform all engrossing and enrolling duties. In addition, each house may hire secretaries necessary to conduct the business of the standing committees. Any secretary appointed to a committee is responsible to the committee chair. In each house, a secretary is provided to the minority party.

3-4. Engrossing and enrolling. The engrossing and enrolling duties of the Legislative Research Council are:

(1) To engross and enroll all bills delivered to them;

(2) To provide and supervise secretarial assistance to legislators as requested;

(3) To collect from the secretaries of all standing and special committees the minutes of such committees and retain them in the Legislative Research Council Library; and

(4) To correct clerical errors, with the consent of the code counsel, in any bill. Clerical errors which may be corrected are: errors in spelling, errors in numbering sections, errors of omission or commission due to addition or deletion of material, and errors due to copying incorrectly from the most recent statute. The code counsel shall inform the principal sponsor of each correction.

3-5. Chaplains. The chief chaplain shall schedule a chaplain to serve in each house for each legislative day. The duty of the chaplain of each house is to open each day's session with a prayer.

3-6. Disputes or complaints involving a legislative session employee. Any dispute or complaint involving the competency or decorum of a legislative session employee, including any violation of SDCL 2-12, shall be referred to the president pro tempore of the Senate or the speaker of the House. CHAPTER 4. ORDER OF BUSINESS

4-1. Daily order of business. After call to order, the daily order of business shall be as follows:

- (1) Prayer by the chaplain and pledge of allegiance;
- (2) Roll call and determination of a quorum;
- (3) Approval of the journal;
- (4) Communications and petitions;
- (5) Reports of standing committees;
- (6) Reports of select committees;
- (7) Messages from the other house;
- (8) Motions and resolutions;
- (9) Consideration of committee reports;
- (10) Introduction, first reading and reference of bills and joint resolutions originating in the house;
- (11) First reading and reference of bills and joint resolutions originating in the other house;
- (12) Second reading of consent calendar bills and resolutions;
- (13) Second reading of bills and joint resolutions originating in the house;
- (14) Second reading of bills and joint resolutions originating in the other house;
- (15) Announcements.

To revert to an old order of business or to pass to a new order of business requires a majority vote of the members present. Any message or communication from the Governor or other state officer may be received at any time.

4-2. Special orders. Any bill, resolution, memorial or other subject matter may be made a special order for some subsequent time by a majority vote of the members present.

4-3. Order of bills and resolutions. Each bill and resolution up for consideration under any order of business shall be listed and taken up in the order in which it is listed on the daily calendar unless otherwise ordered by a majority of the members present.

CHAPTER 5. MOTIONS

5-1. Entertainment of motions. No motion may be entertained and debated until it is seconded. Following the second of a debatable motion, the presiding officer shall first recognize the member making the motion.

5-1.1. Amendments proposing penalties. Any attempt to offer an amendment, whether in committee or on the floor, that requires a fiscal impact statement shall be ruled out of order unless offered with a preexisting fiscal impact statement.

5-2. Restatement and reading of motions. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be restated by the presiding officer, and, if requested by the presiding officer or a member, shall be displayed electronically or reduced to writing and read aloud.

5-2.1. Provision of copies of motions. If a motion to amend is displayed electronically or offered in writing or if each member of the body has been given a copy of the motion, the reading of that motion is automatically waived.

5-2.2. Withdrawal of motions. After a motion is stated by the presiding officer, it may not be withdrawn without unanimous consent of the members present.

5-3. Priority of motions. When a question is under debate, no motion may be made except the following motions which have precedence in the order listed:

- (1) To adjourn;
- (2) To recess;
- (3) To call the house;
- (4) To lay on the table;
- (5) To call the previous question;
- (6) To defer indefinitely;
- (7) To defer to a day certain;
- (8) To refer to committee;
- (9) To amend.

5-4. Priority of motion for adjournment. A motion for adjournment is always in order, unless the roll is being called or the previous question has been ordered, and shall be decided without debate.

5-5. Application and nondebatability of motions to lay on the table. A motion to lay on the table which effects a disposition on the merits of any bill or resolution requires the vote of a majority of the members-elect to carry and shall be decided without debate. Any other motion to lay on the table requires the vote of a majority of the members present and shall be decided without debate. No member may make introductory remarks prior to making a motion to lay on the table.

5-5.1. Scope of motions to lay on the table. A motion to lay on the table may be made so as to apply either to the main question or to a proposed amendment or to the bill and all pending amendments, and the motion shall clearly state to which it is intended to apply.

5-5.2. Motion to take from the table. Whenever any bill or resolution is laid on the table, it requires a majority vote of the members-elect to take it from the table. The motion to take from the table is debatable.

5-5.3. Scope of motion to defer to day certain beyond sine die. The rules pertaining to motions to table and to defer to a day certain beyond sine die shall be the same except that a motion to defer to a day certain beyond sine die is debatable.

5-6. Motion to call the previous question. A motion for the previous question shall be decided immediately by a majority of the members present and without debate. The motion shall clearly indicate the question to which it applies. No member may make introductory remarks prior to making a motion to call the previous question. The effect of adopting a motion to call the previous question is to close debate, to prevent the moving of

1 amendments or other subsidiary motions, and to bring to vote immediately the question to
2 be voted upon. The effect of defeating a motion to call the previous question is to allow
3 continuation of debate on the question before the house.

4 5-7. Priority of vote after call of the previous question. After a motion to call the 5 previous question has prevailed, it is not in order to move a call of the house or to move to 6 adjourn, prior to a decision of the question before the house.

7 5-8. Dilatory motions to defer or refer. If a motion to defer to a day certain, to defer
8 indefinitely or to refer to committee is decided in the negative, such motion is not again in 9 order at the same stage of consideration of the bill or proposition.

10 5-8.1. Motion to postpone as final action. A motion to defer indefinitely or to a date
11 beyond the sine die adjournment of the Legislature requires the vote of a majority of the 12 members-elect.

13 5-9. Division of the question. Any member may call for a division of the question. The 14 presiding officer shall divide the question if it contains questions so distinct that, one being 15 taken away, the rest may stand as a separate proposition. A motion for division of the 16 question is not in order on a bill which is before either house for final disposition.

17 5-10. Motions to strike the enacting clause. A motion to strike the enacting clause of a 18 bill has precedence to a motion to amend, and if carried, is equivalent to the rejection of the 19 bill.

20 5-11. Notice of intention to reconsider. Notice of intention to move for reconsideration
21 shall be made before the body proceeds to the next item of business. If any member fails to 22 give notice of intention to reconsider, the vote on a question shall be deemed to have been 23 moved for reconsideration and such motion for reconsideration to have been laid on the 24 table.

25 5-11.1 Motions to reconsider. Having given notice of intent to reconsider, the member
26 giving notice may move to reconsider the question not later than the next legislative day,
27 except as provided in Joint Rule 5-13. Any motion to reconsider shall be made under order
28 of business No. 8, except as provided in Joint Rule 5-13, and takes precedence over all other
29 motions except to recess or to adjourn. No motion to reconsider the same question may be 30 made twice in the same house without unanimous consent. Every motion to reconsider shall 31 be decided by a majority vote of the members-elect on a roll call vote. No question may be 32 reconsidered except the final disposition of bills and joint resolutions and the override of 33 vetoes. No motion to lay on the table is subject to reconsideration.

34 5-12. Failure to make timely motion for reconsideration. If any member has given notice
35 of intent to move for reconsideration and does not move for reconsideration before the 36 stated deadline, the presiding officer shall immediately state that any member may move for 37 reconsideration.

38 5-13. Motion for reconsideration during final legislative days. During the seven final 39 legislative days, any member who has given notice of intent to move for reconsideration shall make such motion at a time prior to the conclusion of business on the legislative day that the question sought to be reconsidered was acted upon. Such motion may be made at any time prior to adjournment.

5-13.1. Immediate consideration of emergency measures. If the affirmative vote for a bill containing an emergency clause is less than two-thirds but more than one-half of the members-elect, the vote shall be immediately reconsidered.

5-14. Germaneness of amendments. No motion to amend a bill is in order unless it is germane to the subject as expressed in the title of the bill.

5-15. Order of questions. All questions, other than privileged questions as listed in Joint Rule 5-3, shall be put in the order they are moved.

5-16. Limitations on number of motions to amend and substitute motions. When a motion or proposition is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment is in order. It is also in order to offer a further amendment as a substitute, but such substitute is not subject to amendment.

5-17. Motion to delay action on amendments. Final action upon any amendment to a bill or resolution may not be heard until one legislative day has intervened, if a request for delay is made and is supported by at least one-fifth of the members. However, no such request is in order during the last fourteen days of the session. This rule cannot be invoked more than two times on the same bill in each house.

3 RULES

4 7-1. Committee procedure--Relaxed debate. The rules of procedure in a committee are 5 the same as the rules of the body insofar as the rules are applicable to committee procedure.
6 However, as conditions permit, the rules limiting debate may be relaxed to allow free
7 discussion and to facilitate the work of the committee. Discussion and debate may be 8 permitted by the chair on an amendment that has not been moved.

9 7-1.1. Subcommittees. The president pro tempore of the Senate, speaker of the House or a 10 chair of a standing committee may designate subcommittees, the number of members to 11 serve on each subcommittee, the chair of each subcommittee, the members of the 12 subcommittee, and the period of time the subcommittee shall serve.

13 7-1.2. Committee action on bills and resolutions. Unless otherwise ordered under Joint 14 Rule 6D-1, all bills or resolutions shall be referred to one of the standing committees. The 15 chair of a standing committee may then assign a bill or resolution to a subcommittee of that 16 standing committee. All subcommittees shall return such bills or resolutions as are assigned 17 to them for consideration, to the standing committee with or without recommendation and 18 within the time which will permit the full standing committee to act upon the bill or 19 resolution.

20 7-1.3. Meetings open to public. Subject to Article III, Section 15 of the Constitution, all 21 committee or subcommittee meetings shall be open to the public.

22 7-1.4. Posting of agendas. Agendas of the bills, resolutions, and other proposals to be 23 considered at any meeting of a standing committee or subcommittee shall be posted on the 24 bulletin board of the respective house. At least one legislative day shall intervene between 25 the date of posting and the date of consideration. An agenda must be posted by 5 p.m. in 26 order to allow for an intervening legislative day. However, if a day of legislative recess 27 intervenes between the date of posting and the date of consideration, the requirement of 28 posting is fulfilled only if posting is made prior to adjournment of the session of the 29 particular house on the day before the legislative recess.

30 7-1.5. Consideration of matters not posted. A two-thirds majority of the committee
31 members present may bring a matter up for consideration at any time.

32 7-1.6. Formal action required on all legislative proposals. Standing committees shall 33 take formal action regarding each legislative proposal submitted for their consideration.

34 7-1.7. Vote requirement. Final disposition on a bill or resolution requires a majority vote
35 of the committee members-elect taken by roll call.

1 7-1.8. Final disposition. Final disposition is any action which moves a bill out of a
2 committee to the floor of a house or to another committee or which removes it from further
3 consideration by the committee. Examples of final disposition include "Do Pass," "Do Pass,
4 Amended," "Refer to Another Committee," "Lay on the Table," and "Defer to a Day Certain
5 Beyond the End of the Session."

6 7-1.9. Attachment of amendments to bills or resolutions reported unfavorably. Unless
7 a bill has been ordered to be delivered pursuant to Joint Rule 7-7, a committee may amend a
8 bill or resolution that it reports "Do Not Pass" or "Without Recommendation."

9 7-1.10. Amendment of a previously tabled bill. If a bill is removed from the table and 10 amended so that it requires a title amendment, the title must be amended and then the bill
11 reported for a new hearing pursuant to Joint Rule 7-1.4, unless placed by Joint Rule 7-1.5.

12 7-2. Committee reports. Each committee shall report final committee actions on 13 legislative proposals. The chair of a committee shall sign the reports of the committee and 14 present them to the body when the call for committee reports is made. The chair is 15 responsible for the accuracy and propriety of the chair's statements and shall answer any 16 questions pertaining to the report. This rule does not prohibit the committees on legislative 17 procedure from reporting at any time. Formal actions shall be reported to the body not later 18 than the next legislative day in an informational committee report which is printed in the 19 daily journal.

20 7-3. Reports of select committees. Select committees to which matters are referred shall in 21 all cases report a statement of facts and their opinion on the matters to the body.

22 7-4. Dissenting reports. If the members of a committee cannot agree on its report, the 23 majority and minority may each make a report. Any member dissenting in whole or in part 24 from the reasoning and conclusions of both majority and minority may also present a 25 statement of the member's reasoning and conclusions. All reports must be decorous in 26 language and respectful to the house and shall be entered in the journal.

27 7-5. Filing of committee minutes. The minutes of all standing committees shall be
28 prepared and filed on a computerized legislative information system. Computer terminals
29 shall be available in the Presidents' and Speakers' lobbies of the capitol.

30 7-6. Contents of committee minutes. Minutes of standing committees filed pursuant to 31 Joint Rule 7-5 shall contain the number of each proposal considered; the title or a brief
32 summary of each proposal's major provisions; the committee's action, if any, on each
33 proposal, including a brief minority report if requested by any committee member; a record 34 of how each committee member voted when action was taken, including votes on motions to 35 postpone consideration of proposals; and a list of all persons testifying before the committee
36 on each proposal and the interest they represent. Minutes of budget hearings conducted by 37 an appropriations committee may contain a synopsis of testimony received. Minutes shall be 38 open to the public for inspection.

39 7-7. Demand for delivery of bill or resolution to house --"Smoke-out." Each house may 40 by motion order its committee to deliver a bill or resolution under its consideration to that house. If the motion is supported by the vote of one-third or more of the members-elect, the committee shall, not later than the next legislative day, deliver the bill or resolution to the house with or without recommendation. The bill or resolution shall be delivered to the house in the same form as it was when it was tabled or deferred to a nonexistent day by the committee.

7-8. Placement of "smoked-out" bill or resolution on calendar. If a bill or resolution is delivered to the House of Representatives or Senate pursuant to Joint Rule 7-7 on the last day for passage and it was not reported "Do Pass," the bill or resolution may, by motion approved by a majority of the members-elect of the House of Representatives or Senate, be placed on that day's calendar.

7-9. Calendar committee. The calendar committee in the Senate consists of the President Pro Tempore, the Senate Majority Leader, and the Senate Minority Leader. The calendar committee in the House consists of the Speaker of the House, the House Majority Leader, and the House Minority Leader. The committee shall determine the daily legislative calendar.

7-10. Co-chairs of joint committees. Chairs of standing committees operating and voting as joint committees shall serve as co-chairs of the joint committees.

7-11. Introduction of general appropriation bill. The general appropriation bill shall be introduced by the Senate Committee on Appropriations in even-numbered years and by the House Committee on Appropriations in odd-numbered years. The general appropriation bill shall be introduced no later than the sixteenth legislative day.

7-12. Structure of appropriations committee. The Senate and House Committees may meet in joint session or form combined subcommittees to hear agency budget presentations. All Joint Appropriations Committee action on the general appropriations bill shall be approved by a majority vote of the Joint Committee unless a member calls for a separate vote of the House Appropriations Committee and the Senate Appropriations Committee in which case a majority vote of each committee is required for adoption. Such action shall constitute the committee report of the house of origin on the general appropriation bill.

7-13. Entertainment of motions. No motion may be debated until it is seconded. Following the second of a debatable motion, the chair shall first recognize the member making the motion. No member of the House of Representatives may make introductory remarks prior to making a motion.

7-14. Restatement and reading of motions. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be restated by the chair.

7-15. Withdrawal of motions. After a motion is stated by the chair, it may not be withdrawn without consent of the members who made and seconded the motion.

7-16. Motions. When a question is under debate, no motion may be made except the following motions:

- 1 (1) Adjourn;
- 2 (2) Recess;
- 3 (3) Call the previous question;
- 4 (4) Lay on the table;
- 5 (5) Defer to a day certain beyond the end of the session;
- 6 (6) Do pass;
- 7 (7) Do pass, amended;
- 8 (8) Do not pass;
- 9 (9) Without recommendation;
- 10 (10) Defer to a day certain;
- 11 (11) Refer to another committee;
- 12 (12) Amend;
- 13 (13) Appoint a subcommittee.

14 7-17. Application and nondebatability of motions to lay on the table. A motion to lay on 15 the table which effects a disposition on the merits of any bill or resolution requires the vote
16 of a majority of the committee members-elect to carry and shall be decided without debate.
17 No other motion may be made until the members have voted on the motion to lay on the 18 table. Any other motion to lay on the table requires the vote of a majority of the committee
19 members present and shall be decided without debate. No committee member may make 20 introductory remarks prior to making a motion to lay on the table.

21 7-18. Scope of motions to lay on the table. A motion to lay on the table may be made so
22 as to apply either to the main question or to a proposed amendment or to the bill and all
23 pending amendments, and the motion shall clearly state to which it is intended to apply.

24 7-19. Motion to take from the table or to reconsider the bill. Whenever any bill or 25 resolution is laid on the table or deferred to a day certain beyond sine die, it requires a 26 majority vote of the committee members-elect to take it from the table or to reconsider the 27 bill or resolution which was deferred. The motion to take from the table or to reconsider is 28 debatable.

29 7-20. Scope of motion to defer to day certain beyond sine die. The rules pertaining to 30 motions to table and to defer to a day certain beyond sine die shall be the same except that a
31 motion to defer to a day certain beyond sine die is debatable. A member of the Senate may
32 make introductory remarks prior to making a motion to defer to a day certain beyond sine
33 die.

34 7-21. Motion to call the previous question. A motion for the previous question shall be 35 decided immediately by a majority of the committee members present and without debate.
36 The motion shall clearly indicate the question to which it applies. No committee member
37 may make introductory remarks prior to making a motion to call the previous question. The 38 effect of adopting a motion to call the previous question is to close debate, to prevent the 39 moving of amendments or other subsidiary motions, and to bring to vote immediately the 40 question to be voted upon. The effect of defeating a motion to call the previous question is 41 to allow continuation of debate on the question before the committee.

7-22. Priority of vote after call of the previous question. After a motion to call the previous question has prevailed, it is not in order to move to adjourn, prior to a decision of the question before the committee.

7-23. Dilatory motions to defer or refer. If a motion to defer to a day certain, to defer indefinitely or to refer to another committee is decided in the negative, such motion is not again in order at the same stage of consideration of the bill or proposition.

7-24. Motion to postpone as final action. A motion to defer indefinitely or to a date beyond the sine die adjournment of the Legislature requires the vote of a majority of the committee members-elect.

7-25. Germaneness of amendments. No motion to amend a bill is in order unless it is germane to the subject as expressed in the title of the bill.

7-26. Limitations on number of motions to amend and substitute motions. When a motion or proposition is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment is in order. It is also in order to offer a further amendment as a substitute, but such substitute is not subject to amendment.

7-27. Division of the question. Any member may call for a division of the question. The chair shall divide the question if it contains questions so distinct that, one being taken away, the rest may stand as a separate proposition.

7-28. Committee procedure -- Remote electronic testimony. During any regular or special session of the Legislature, a committee may, upon the unanimous consent of the members present, permit a person to appear from a remote site and give testimony before the committee by electronic audio/video means.

CHAPTER 8. CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

8-1. Appointment and composition of conference committees. In every case of disagreement between the two houses, if either house requests a conference and appoints a committee for that purpose, the other house shall appoint a committee to confer with a like committee of the other house upon the subject of the disagreement, and to report back to its house of appointment. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of each house. The members from the House of Representative shall be appointed by the speaker of the House and the members from the Senate shall be appointed by the president pro tempore of the Senate. Insofar as possible, members appointed to conference committees shall be representative of the decision within the house upon the issue under consideration.

8-2. Conference committee meetings, committee reports, and reports must be germane. Conference committees shall meet in open session, and minutes shall be taken and prepared in a like manner as provided for in Joint Rule 7-6. The presiding officer of the house of origin shall announce to that body the time and location of each conference committee meeting. The co-chairs of each conference committee shall report the results of each meeting to the body in a conference committee report jointly signed by both. The conference committee report must be germane to the title of the bill as submitted to the conference committee. The adoption of any conference committee report constituting final

1 disposition must be approved by the recorded affirmative vote of at least two members from 2 each house.

3 8-3. Final disposition of report and distribution of reports. Adoption of a conference
4 committee report recommending passage of a bill or adoption of a resolution constitutes 5 final disposition. The vote required to concur in the amendments of the other House or to 6 adopt a conference committee report shall be the same as that required for final passage of 7 the bill or resolution taking such bill or resolution as a whole. Before the final vote on the 8 adoption of a conference committee report may be taken, any member of the body may 9 require that the report be distributed in written form to the members of the body.

10 8-4. Member may move to not appoint a subsequent conference committee--Final
11 disposition. However, if a conference committee report is not adopted, any member may 12 move not to appoint a new conference committee. If that motion prevails it constitutes final 13 disposition of that bill or resolution.

14 CHAPTER 9. COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

15 9-1. Designation of committee of the whole chair. If either house sits as a committee of 16 the whole, the presiding officer shall name one of the members as chair, who shall be vested 17 with all the authority of the presiding officer of the house concerned while the committee of 18 the whole is in session.

19 9-2. Rules of the committee of the whole. The rules observed by the house concerned 20 shall govern as far as practicable, except that:

- 21 (1) The yeas and nays may not be called;
- 22 (2) The previous question may not be enforced; and
- 23 (3) The time of speaking may not be limited.

24 9-3. Adjournment of the committee of the whole. A motion that the committee rise is 25 always in order and shall be decided without debate.

CHAPTER 13. CONSENT CALENDAR

13-1. Consent calendar recommendations by standing committees. Each standing committee may report an uncontested bill or resolution out of committee with the recommendation that it be placed on the consent calendar. As used in this rule, an "uncontested bill or resolution" is any bill or resolution, except a revenue measure, which receives a do-pass or do-pass-as-amended recommendation from the committee to which it is referred, by unanimous vote of the members present and has no opposition expressed by any person present at the committee meeting with respect to the final version of the bill or resolution as approved by the committee.

13-2. Consent calendar placement, objections. Any bill or resolution certified by the committee chair as an uncontested bill or resolution shall be placed by the secretary of the Senate or the chief clerk of the House of Representatives, on the consent calendar, upon an affirmative vote therefor of all the members present of the committee reporting the bill or resolution to its respective house. Upon objection of any member to the placement or retention of any bill or resolution on the consent calendar, the bill or resolution shall be removed from the consent calendar and may be placed on the house calendar for second reading on the following legislative day. A VETOED BILL SHALL BE RETURNED BY THE GOVERNOR TO THE LEGISLATURE TOGETHER WITH THE GOVERNOR'S OBJECTIONS WITHIN FIVE DAYS, NOT INCLUDING SATURDAYS, SUNDAYS, OR HOLIDAYS, OF PRESENTATION IF THE LEGISLATURE IS IN SESSION OR UPON THE RECONVENING OF THE LEGISLATURE FROM A RECESS. ANY VETOED BILL SHALL BE RECONSIDERED BY THE LEGISLATURE AND, IF TWO-THIRDS OF ALL MEMBERS OF EACH HOUSE SHALL PASS THE BILL, IT SHALL BECOME LAW.
